

There were forty wagons in the _____ , and nearly two hundred men, women, party grass down _____ children. A few of the pioneers _____ saddle horses, but most of them or from and _____ drove rode name
 _____ . The only ones riding inside the _____ were little children and their mothers, sulked kindled walked _____ ferns drowsy wagons _____ the people who were sick or _____ . Following the wagons were herds of or good and _____ relieved of injured _____ cows and beef cattle, along with _____ oxen, mules, and horses. smoke milk dirt _____ none extra hold The pioneers _____ been up since four that morning, _____ the sentries dropped had hat _____ what hot when started the day by _____ their rifles. Hurrying about in the _____ , they had kindled firing ordering ground _____ oldness raise darkness fires, put on _____ of water, milked cows, pulled down _____ , loaded wagons, and gloves down kettles _____ whispers about tents fixed breakfast. By _____ , they were ready to roll. The _____ captain gave the most rain seven _____ train to case signal to move _____ . Slowly the lead wagons rolled forward _____ others fell into out beside some _____ of good and line.
 At noon _____ stopped for an hour's rest. The _____ of oxen and mules them the they _____ junks drowsy teams were turned _____ from the wagons but not unyoked. _____ and buffalo robes were loose strong gust _____ Chivalry Trail Blankets spread out _____ the trail. The pioneers ate a _____ lunch, relaxed a bit, then rolled on out beside _____ on weak cold _____ the trail again.
 in good down
 As they moved _____ , they passed the splintered wreck of _____ abandoned along within as _____ as bewildered an wagon. Every two or three _____ they saw a wooden grave marker _____ pioneers weeks as miles _____ what wreck where had been laid to rest _____ the trail. As the days wore _____ , children began to climb in had beside _____ in help on aboard the _____ , finding nooks and corners where they _____ curl up and nap. wagons places the _____ could did to Late that _____ , near a grove of willows, the _____ captain gave the signal wagon afternoon kind _____ train as day to stop _____ the night.

start for as