

On July 31, 2006, the University of Maine System (UMS) will implement the Campus Community and Recruiting and Admissions modules of the PeopleSoft® Campus Solutions system. Project Enterprise staff and a team of functional experts from each campus are working toward readying both modules for implementation and go-live. Arrangements are underway for training and updating employees who will use these two new modules.