

Osher Lifelong Learning Institute

*An exciting opportunity for seniors aged 50 and better!
Classes begin September 13, 2004.*

Monday

Shared Inquiry
Ancestors Among Us
Cross-Cultural Travel Tips
Arts Sampler
Book Share: The Impact of Technology
Antiques: What Is, What Isn't
Learn to Play the Mountain Dulcimer
World's Religion through Literature
Conversational Spanish

Tuesday

The Silent Comedy Movies
Industrial Endeavors
Juggling Life at the Top and More
The Court System
Weaving
Understanding Genetics
Drawing is FUNDamental
Literature and Music
In Memory Of.....
Securing American Democracy for the 21st Century - Part V

Wednesday

Comparing Public, Charter, and Private Schools
A History of the American Revolution
The Letters of St. Paul
Five Rivers MetroParks Story
Living an Autumn Spirituality
Sports Movies: Are the Remakes Better?
Fall Gardening
Retirement Planning with Insurance Solutions
Islamic Culture
Conservative Media - A Vast Right-Wing Conspiracy

Thursday

Film Classics
Exercise for Mature Adults
A House Filled With Words
Believe It and You Will See It
From Age-ing to Sage-ing
Handbell Ringing for "First Timers"
Handbell Ringing for "Beyond the Basics"
Financial Planning and Investments
Election 2004 and The Future of American Democracy
Shakespeare's Pairs of Lovers

Friday

Embracing Aging, Changing and Dying
Introduction to Digital Photography
Intermediate Genealogy
Will Christians be Lonely in Heaven?
Tai Chi Chaun
Making Informed Choices: Republicans and the 2004 Election
Money Management for Women
Beginning Yoga

Special Session

How to Win or Lose or Draw Abroad
Computer Basics

For more information and registration please call Special Programs and Continuing Education, 229-2347. www.as.udayton.edu/continuingeducation

Institute for Learning

in Retirement

Fall Program

September 9

- November 19, 2002